

The image displays three distinct artworks by Hendrick W. Van Loon. On the left is a framed menu titled 'Design for a Menu of the New York Library Club Annual Dinner', dated 1940, made of black ink over graphite on card. In the center is a card titled 'Banquet Card and Menu', dated 1946, made of black ink over graphite on card. On the right is a menu titled 'Menu', dated 1950, made of black ink over graphite on card. The artworks are presented in a grid-like fashion, with the central card partially overlapping the others.

